- B. On June 23, 2019 at approximately 8:52 p.m., the undersigned officer was contacted by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (LVMPD). The officer indicated he was responding to an apartment for a Domestic Battery call.

Witnesses reported hearing Mr. Crum being in a heated argument with Diamond Peterson (his girlfriend/mother of his children). When they intervened, he was observed being on top of Ms. Peterson, striking her. Ms. Peterson was heard telling Mr. Crum, "don't punch me in my face anymore". Crum was pepper sprayed by Ms. Peterson's sister and the battery stopped. Mr. Crum left the residence threatening the witnesses. Witnesses made written statements regarding their observations. She reported their argument escalated and Crum grabbed her, and pushed her to the ground. As a result of being pushed to the ground her leg was "carpet burned". She reported calling the police, but Crum left prior to law enforcement's arrival. Crum returned shortly after law enforcement left the residence. She reported he was locked out of the residence but due to him kicking on the front door, she again called the police.

Peterson further reported that Crum had not sought employment since December 2019, and that he simply lies around the residence and drinks almost daily. She reported due to their conflicts her landlord has threatened to evict her and their children from the property. She considers their relationship had terminated many months ago but has permitted him to reside with her and their children due to feeling sorry for him. She reported due to his conduct with her, that he is no longer welcome at her residence.

On March 23, 2020, Crum contacted the undersigned officer. He reported being released from Clark County, Nevada Detention Center. When asked where he planned to reside, Crum indicated he had nowhere else to reside and intended to remain at Ms. Peterson's residence.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA
UNITED STATES V. TYRONE KESHAUN CRUM, 2:16CR00101

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR SUMMONS

May 11, 2020

Mr. Crum has been before the Court multiple times for status related hearings due to multiple violations of the Court's orders. The hearings have primarily stemmed from him having prior domestic conflicts with Ms. Peterson, being unemployed, consuming alcohol irresponsibly, not participating in job readiness training nor completing community service work.

He has been referred to the following resources to address his instability:

1. Choices Counseling
2. Foundations of Independent Tomorrow (FIT)
3. Residential Reentry Center placement
4. GPS monitoring
5. Elevated reporting with the U.S. Probation office

Despite the resources provided, he is not exhibiting intrinsic motivation to live a stable, sober and responsible type of lifestyle.

The undersigned believes his conduct related to alcohol consumption and associating with gang members places the community at risk of harm. The undersigned believes all resources have been exhausted to reduce risks associated in this case. As a result, the undersigned believes revocation action is appropriate at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott Phillips
